Gorilla Glue® Named One of Greater Cincinnati Top Workplaces

Durable Glue and a Strong Workplace Go Hand-in-Hand

CINCINNATI (July 1, 2011) – Gorilla Glue products are known for their exceptional bonding powers and continued durability in extreme conditions. The same can be said for their strong work environment and culture. In testament to that, Gorilla Glue was recognized as one of Greater Cincinnati “Top Workplaces 2011” by Enquirer Media.

“We’re very serious about creating the best products for our customers but, we are equally dedicated to making the work environment as fun and enjoyable as possible,” said Pete Ragland, company president. “Everyone takes great pride in all aspects of the business and that makes it so much easier to be passionate about what you do all day.”

Only 75 Greater Cincinnati companies were honored as Top Workplaces 2011. Gorilla Glue earned this distinction as a result of the employees who nominated the company and their confidential surveys were used to evaluate workplace strengths, benefits and fascinating facts as part of the judging process. Gorilla Glue’s high scores positioned them eighth in the small business category.
